

ADVERTISEMENTregarding regions and countries that are considered to be special high-risk areas for COVID-19

Article 1

The Minister of Health hereby publishes, with reference to paragraph 3 of the transitional provision of the Act on Communicable Diseases No. 19/1997, with subsequent amendments, with reference to Article 5 of the Regulation on Quarantine, Isolation and Testing at the Border of Iceland in Connection with COVID-19, a list of regions and countries that are considered to be special high-risk areas:

A. Countries or regions with a 14-day incidence rate of 500-699 per every 100 000 inhabitants:

1. Argentina
2. Aruba
3. Bosnia and Herzegovina
4. Bulgaria
5. Chile
6. Estonia
7. Greece
8. Italy
9. Liechtenstein
10. North Macedonia
11. Romania
12. Serbia
13. The Seychelles
14. Slovenia
15. Mainland Spain
16. Czech Republic

B. Countries or regions with a 14-day incidence rate of 700 or more per every 100 000 inhabitants or where sufficient information about the region or country is not available:

1. Andorra
2. Bahrain
3. Bermuda
4. Curaçao

5. France
6. The Netherlands
7. Croatia
8. Cyprus
9. Lithuania
10. Poland
11. Puerto Rico
12. San Marino
13. Sweden
14. Turkey
15. Hungary
16. Uruguay